This is the email confirmation for your booking, which will need to be shown to our staff when you arrive. You can print this, show it on your phone or device, or store the tickets in your Apple or Google wallet on your phone. The details of your order, including the number of tickets, parking permits and any retail items, are all linked to the order reference and barcode above. We use this to check your order and to record (redeem) your visit on the day.

IWM Members will need to show a valid membership card for each member ticket and discounted retail item purchased. Visitors eligible for concessionary and discounted rates will also need to show appropriate supporting documentation.

Please see the text at the bottom of the email for further information about your booking.
