Additional Information

St Giles' Cathedral has provided the following information:
Hi there,

Thank you for booking onto one of our free daily tours. On the day of your tour, please head to our front desk to check in before the tour begins. You do not need to print out your tickets - we will have a list of booked names on the day.

In order to check you in, our volunteer guide will see the first name, surname and email address of the person who booked the tour. If you would prefer for this information to not be shared, please email events@stgilescathedral.org.uk

If you need to cancel your tour booking, please send an email to events@stgilescathedral.org.uk. This allows us to offer your spot to other visitors who were not able to book.

We hope you enjoy your visit! You will receive a short feedback form after your tour, if you would like to share your experience.
