Visitor Information

- The National Wallace Monument is located on Hillfoots Road, Causewayhead, Stirling FK9 5LF. Information on Directions and Transport Links to the Monument can be found here: <https://www.nationalwallacemonument.com/plan-your-visit/directions/>
- The café located at the Car Park level does not accept E-Tickets or check in online bookings, they are managed by an independent company.
- A free shuttle bus service regularly operates between the Car Park and the Monument (4-minute journey) or visitors can follow The Wallace Way (15 minute walk), on the main path to reach the tower. Please note that the pathway is steep in some areas.
- The shuttle bus service is not in operation between 1:00pm and 1:30pm. Visitors are therefore required to walk up to the tower during this time.
- The shuttle bus is a free complimentary service to all. There may be instances when the shuttle bus will not operate due to circumstances beyond our control.
- Seating is limited on the shuttle bus and can often be in high demand leading to longer wait times.
- The galleries within the Monument, and The Crown at the top of the building, are accessed via a spiral staircase, with a total of 246 steps. Further information on Accessibility can be found here: <https://www.nationalwallacemonument.com/plan-your-visit/accessibility/>
- Visitors should keep to the right hand side of the stairs at all times.
- Due to the nature of the spiral staircase inside the Monument, visitors will be asked to hold their backpacks in their hands when passing other visitors on the stairs.
- Large backpacks or baby carriers will not be permitted up the Tower. The maximum bag size allowed inside the Monument is 55.9 x 35.6 x 22.9cm.
