THE BEST of DUBLIN

TAKE a walk in St. Stephen's Green.
Everyone's favourite park is just down the road from the Little Museum pop-up.

FORGET your troubles in a great old
Dublin pub. Two gems, Toner's and Doheny & Nesbitt's, are just around the corner.

READ a good book about Dublin. We have just published our own, A Little History of Dublin - buy a signed copy in our shop.

EAT We love the food in Etto, which is just around the corner. Or splash out for a great meal in FX Buckley's across the road.

VISIT the National Gallery and the Royal Hibernian Academy. Both of these gems are free and near the Little Museum.

The Little Museum Story In 2011, we had no money, no building and nothing to display. Thanks to the generosity of the Irish people we created the Little Museum in just five months. Today it is the number one museum in the country.
